

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone Scavenger hunt by Cindy O'Hora

<http://homepage.mac.com/cohora/ext/hpstone.html>

Directions: Use the links provided to find the answers to the questions. You can use the Back button of your browser to return to this page.

1. Harry Potter's pet is a snowy owl named Hedwig. How much does a snowy owl eat each day? Find the answer in the Animals of the Arctic project.

2. In Professor Sprout's herbology class Harry learns the many uses of plants. What did the Greeks believe mint would cure?

3. Harry searches for the famous Sorcerer's Stone. Name a famous rock on exhibit at the Smithsonian Institute. Write one fact about it.

4. Harry looks into the Mirror of Erised and sees his parents. What do they apply to glass to make it a mirror?

Write Erised backwards: _____

5. Fluffy guards the Sorcerer's Stone. Cerberus was the name of the three headed dog in Greek mythology. What did it guard?

6. How old was J. K. Rowling when she wrote her first book?

7. At the zoo, Harry discovers he can talk to snakes. What famous animal doctor character could talk to animals?

8. The ghost Peeves is a nasty fellow. If you have a pet peeve, what does that mean? Go to:
<http://www.dictionary.com/>
Enter the term pet peeve and search for the answer.

9. Harry catches the train to Hogwarts. Suppose you wanted to catch a train going from New York City to Orlando. What time in the morning would the train leave NYC?

What day and time would it arrive in Orlando FLA?

10. What does Dumbledore mean?

11. Do this Harry Potter puzzle that is calculated to challenge you.

Fun if you are already done:

Go to this funbrain puzzle and sharpen your grammar skills. <http://www.funbrain.com/grammar/index.html>

Want to explore more Harry Potter web resources? Check out the terrific collection by Midge Frazel.
<http://www.midgefrazel.net/owlmail.html>