

Working in a Group

Name: _____

To work successfully in a group it helps to know a few key things. This activity will help you be better prepared to work with others.

Go to <http://webquest.sdsu.edu/processguides/>

Directions: Utilize the Back Button pop up menu of your browser to return to this page. Hold down on the Back button until the menu appears. Drag down to select this page. Utilize the resources provided at the web site Process Guides to answer the questions.

1. What is brainstorming? _____

Name the three roles in a brainstorming.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

According to Step 4 - what should you NOT do during the brainstorming?

2. Building Consensus is challenging. Which of the seven steps is most important? Why?

3. Talk, talk, talk. Many groups are good at talking, but get very little work done. List some principles of Time Management.

Which ones do you already use? _____

Why should you avoid procrastination? _____

4. I know I'm Right - Making a persuasive argument is aided by key strategies. Write them.

Which ideas, about persuading someone to see your point of view, are new to you? _

5. Which role in group work is the best one for you? Why? _____
